Discover why small is beautiful!

Ljubljana offers a host of guided tours for visitors to discover the major city sights, as well as a range of special-interest programmes. Apart from walking tours, some itineraries may include the Ljubljana Castle, from where a magnificent panorama unfolds, or a boat ride down the river. Many of them run on a regular scheduled basis. Ljubljana is also an ideal departure point to reach a number of Slovenia's natural and cultural attractions, many of which are within one hour's drive. The picture-postcard Lake Bled, the

General destination information

Coiled up by mountains, Slovenia is surrounded by Austria, Italy, Hungary and the Adriatic Sea on the one side, and Croatia on the other. This Central European country of two million residents, only half the size of Switzerland, surprises first-time visitors with the array of landscapes and its rich cultural heritage. Slovenia joined the European Union in 2004, as well as the Eurozone and the Schengen Zone in 2007.

the forefront. With 280.000 residents, it does not rank among the major European capitals, yet combines many facilities and services of a larger city with the relaxed ambience and safety of smaller towns. Its image features a harmonic blend of Baroque, Art Nouveau and newer styles, complemented by a medieval hilltop castle and a river. A rich agenda of cultural events, a lively café society and an active youth scene fuelled by 55,000 university students contribute to Ljubljana's dynamic flair. It is also distinguished by an attractive historic quarter with a cosy, lounge-style feel, which is ideal for networking, and also offers very good value for money.

The European Commission has awarded Ljubljana with the prestigious title of European Green Capital 2016, while the World Travel and Tourism Council has named it winner of the Tourism for Tomorrow 2015 award in the destinations category. Both are an important recognition of Ljubljana's sustainable development strategy and its visible results.

ICV29 Ljubljana 2021

29th International Congress of Vexillology, Ljubljana, Slovenia

30th anniversary of Slovenia's independence

Invitation Letter for the 29th International Congress of Vexillology

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Heraldry Society of Slovenia, I have the privilege and honor to submit our candidacy for the 29th International Congress of Vexillology to be held in Ljubljana, Slovenia. We would like to inform you that the excursion programme and companion programme have been prepared and the venue arranged.

We are ready!

The Congress will be held in the Best Western Premier Hotel Slon, a luxurious 4-star hotel with a premier location in the very heart of Ljubljana, only steps away from the Old Town and less than 30 minutes from the international airport.

The 29th International Congress of Vexillology in Ljubljana represents an unmatched opportunity for everyone interested in Slovenian vexillology to experience our heritage firsthand. The main theme will be the celebration of the 30th anniversary the country's declaration of independence.

The opportunity gave rise to a partnership with Museum of Contemporary History, City Museum of Ljubljana, and Park of Military History Pivka, top three locations to offer a unique opportunity to participants to be introduced to Slovenian historical flags. The jewel in the crown of the Slovenian independence is the original 13-metre flag that was hoisted in Ljubljana at the moment of the formal declaration of independence in 1991. After a long period of safekeeping, the flag will be unveiled again solely on our behalf.

In cooperation with the Municipality of Ljubljana, we shall have accomplished tourist guides at our disposal to highlight the beautiful features of the city. The President of the Republic of Slovenia has confirmed to assume the patronage of the reception; His Excellency is a friend of our Society and has already honoured FIAV by hosting Mr. Michel R. Lupant, the President of Fédération internationale des associations vexillologiques.

Dear Colleagues, we will do our best to make you feel welcome in the city of Ljubljana, and enjoy our diverse program and unique social events surrounded by the beauty of Slovenia and kindness of Slovenian people. We want to make your trip worthwhile and leave you with a desire for more!

I sincerely hope you will do us the honour and vote for Ljubljana 2021.
