

CATCHING VIEWS AND FISH BY MOTORBIKE

Start your day with coffee, a welcome treat, and the most beautiful view over the Posavje region. The Tri lučke estate is where the counts of Attems built the largest, still-preserved wooden wine press almost 150 years ago. You will probably find it hard to tear away from the vineyards, picturesque roofs, and the mighty Sava river but your motorbike adventure already awaits with amazing views. Equipped with GPX coordinates and a loaded backpack of delicacies, you will first ride towards the Bohor range. Stop and take a walk along the forest trail to the Pekel waterfall (hell in Slovenian). The legend has it this is where the devil himself was basking in the heavenly views while perched on a high rocky needle. A surprise awaits you if you share a photo of this divine and not at all hellish view with your friends. Continue your walk along the trail to the Bohor mountain lodge and find the perfect spot for a delicious picnic. The panoramic ride will then take you to the Pajk Fish Farm located back in the valley. The owners will help you catch fish and give you the chance to grill them right next to their pond. Upon your return to the Tri lučke estate, you will be rewarded with a home-made dessert and a divine view.

STORIES AND WATERFALLS OF THE BOHOR HILLS

A delicious breakfast will be served in the morning, with our chef personally presenting the delicacies from the Posavje farms and fish farms. After tasting locally produced honey, butter, jam, cheese, cottage cheese, yoghurt, charcuterie, and fish spreads, you will agree that breakfast can sometimes be the best meal of the day. You are now fully equipped to start your adventure. After a drive to Jablance, a local guide will meet you at the starting point to the Bohor waterfalls. While listening to the exciting stories, the 4-hour hike along the Four Waterfalls Trail will pass in the blink of an eye. On the way to the first waterfall, you will certainly be impressed by the abundance of nature as well as some rocky stages. Legend has it that Bojanca, the first waterfall, has carved out the face of a petrified girl who lost her needle, while the second, or the Pekel waterfall, is where the devil himself was basking in the best of views. The hike also takes you to the Ubijavnik and Bojavnik waterfalls. Pick the ideal forest clearing for a picnic along the way and have a taste of the delicacies that our chef thoughtfully put in your backpack.
